WINTER

In this gray cold world,
I know there will return

There is always that promise.

WOMEN'S TENNIS

This season, the Lady Foresters whacked their way to fifth place in the state and third place in the conference. Juniors Nancy Horgan and Kathleen Sadler both made it to the semi-finals in the State Tournament in the women's singles. Overall, the team ended their season with a 5-2 record. The ladies will return next season, without losing a single member.

FIELD HOCKEY

Sparked by seniors Caryl Weisbecker and Claudia Kuzyk, the team of ten returnees and ten rookies battled their way to fifth place in the State. Further honors went to Junior Julie Campbell and Sophomore Nowell Traves, who at the end of the IAIW tournament were named to the All-State team. In all, the Lady Foresters ended their long season with a 9-10-2 record.

SOCCER

This year's soccer squad had almost a perfect season, ending with another trip to the Division play-offs. Seniors Dan Burns, Larry Dohrs, Jeff Getz, and stand-out goalie Barry Jacobson led the squad to a 9-1-1 record. The rampaging Foresters were finally stopped by MacMurray College in the Division play-offs, losing in triple overtime 2-1.

FOOTBALL

The 1980 football team finished their season with a 4-3-1 record, which earned the Foresters a third place finish in the MCAC conference. Captains Ed Pluchar, Pete Magrini, and Phil Lombardo led the young squad, which included thirty-one freshmen on the roster. Quarterback Frank Melch led a passing offense that was unstoppable. The defense, which was second in the conference, was sparked by defensive tackle Jon Wynn. The Foresters came together and defeated Carleton College during Homecoming, then finished the rest of the season without a loss. The foundation for a championship team has been lead by Head Coach Mike Dau, and his coaching staff, which included the addition of Mickey Ewing (defensive linebacker coach) this year. All in all, next year should prove to be exciting as the young team returns to play ball with a season's experience under their belts.

Though their record may insinuate otherwise, the Forester hoopsters have played consistently and strong defensively. Their only fault was too little shooting. Led in battle by seniors Bob Brodell and Fred Carter, and stand-out defensive player Greg Gienko, the young team looks to a bright future in coming seasons.

Varsity

Junior Varsity

Men's Hockey

At press time, the Forester pucksters were playing at about .500 at midway in their 1980-81 season. Superb goalie-ing by Dave Lothrop and Dickie Totaro, and the masterful defense by co-captain Randy Lauer contributed to the otherwise unstable playing of other players. Other sand-outs were junior Scott MacFarlane and seniors Brent Keeley and Jack O'Brien.

(From L. to R.) Front Row: Dick Totaro, Brent Keeley, Jack O'Brien, Randy Lauer, Bob Clisby, Ed Stang. Second Row: Coach Tony Fritz, Mike Browne, Dan Moriarty, Rick Swan, Greg Zielinski, Steve Collins, Scott MacFarlane, Dan Burns, Asst. Coach Doug Coleman. Back Row: Mark Smith, Rich Balance, Ed Parker, Peter Tilton, Mark Sweetland, Mike Macelhaney, Joe Lagor, John Booth, Tim Prout, Dave Locke, Dave Lothrop, Mgr. Tony Mulert.

Handball

The 1980-81 Lake Forest Handball squad continued yearly exercises in excellence, long an LFC tradition, by finishing highly ranked in the national standings. Sparked by premier performances by Seniors Denny Drolet and Fran Harvey, the team performed well against serious competition. Star players, such as Bob Martin and Chris Roberts, the squad expects to return next season and maintain the long Forester record of excellent, unparalleled play.

VOLLEYBALL

The Lady Forester volleyball squad, led by Seniors Lois Weisbrook, Terre Rappa, and Julie Molo, ended a long hard season with an even record of 13 wins and 13 losses. At the IATAW tournament, the team tied for fifth in the state, thanks to the efforts of Weisbrook, Rappa, and Molo, and Junior Deb Porto.

Women's Softball

Swimming

Once again this year, the mighty water people of the Lake Forest College swim team gave their competition a good "sprint" for their money. Several of the team will participate in the Nationals. Led by seniors Theresa Nissen and Pete Alexander, among others, the team should continue their winning ways next season.

(From R. to L.) Sitting: Adami, Carlo, Till, Nissen, McGarrahan, Llerandi, Leonard, and Hayes. Kneeling: Pill, Shirley, Alexander, VanSpankeren, Liebert, McCormack. Standing: Coaches Leonard and Kiely, Sullivan, Adams, Briehan.

Women's Basketball

The young women of the LFC Women's Basketball team, despite injuries and a tough schedule, put together a somewhat successful season in which the record does not do them justice. Under the new coach, Betty Burke, the team showcased the supreme skills of juniors Kathy Lushbough and Nancy Horgan, and sophomore Cynie Cory. Despite the disappointment of a rough season, the entire squad is looking forward to next year.

Cheerleaders and Pom Pon Girls

Adding a little life and fanfare to what ended up being dismal, these three squads of lovely ladies provided the entertainment when the teams just could not.

HOMECOMING 1980

Homecoming weekend was an oasis of fun in the desert known as fall term. The festivities began with a dance to the R&B of Amusement Park. The next morning, the Homecoming Queen, Cheri Tarr, and her Court, Jane Crnich and Claudia Kuzyk (Seniors), Doodle Grant (Junior), Kitty Llerandi (Sophomore), and Mary Worland (Freshman), paraded through the town escorted by several creative floats. The Foresters won both the football and soccer games to the cheers of loyal fans and alumni. The Football team beat Carleton 21-14, as the Soccer team clinched the conference with a 2-1 win over Carleton. That night, the students listened to the sounds of the Boyzz. On Sunday, everyone rested over brunch and enjoyed the Open Mike in Commonplace.

Sixties Weekend

This multi-faceted weekend was kicked-off by the seasoned words of Senator Eugene McCarthy, and the comments of three distinguished faculty members. The next day, the school bopped to the tunes of Dr. Bop and the Headliners, following two Beatles films. Finally, we sat back and tried to make sense of the Vietnam War era with the film 'The War at Home', followed by a frank discussion by Lake Forest alumni of the Sixties. While many of us were too young to remember that turbulent era, hopefully we got some idea from the many events we enjoyed.

This picture you can see
 Only reflects an image of me.
 The wisdom of that thought
 Is true.
 After four long years at LFC
 I finally reached graduation day.
 Looking back over the times I had,
 Some been good, and some been bad.
 All those I leave behind I give my best,
 All Students, most teachers, and all the rest.
 The parties I've seen couldn't have been better,
 So many great times I'll remember forever.
 So many experiences of which I could say,
 But to get them printed here,
 There would be no way.
 So I'd like to leave behind one last thought:
 When careful, its easy enough
 not to get caught.
 But when it finally happens, its
 just as easy to talk yourself
 Out of it.

To live is not to breathe; it is to act; it is to make use of our organs, our senses, our faculties, of all the parts of ourselves which give us the sentiment of our existence. The man who has lived the most is not he who has counted the most years but he who has most felt life. Men have been buried at one hundred who died at their birth.  And the years I've spent looking for your eyes
 Now I'm sitting here wondering what to say
 Afraid that all these words might scare you away

 Without dressing them in dreams, and laughter
 I guess it's just too painful otherwise.
 Look, it's like your standing in a window

 And I'm sitting in a car across the way
 Let's just say it's a warm and windy day
 You go and pack your sorrow, trashman comes tomorrow
 Leave it at the curb, and we'll just pull away ...

The pulse of our planet weakens with poisons in her blood and smoke in her lungs. A rich diversity of animal and plant life, which has always nourished her systems, rapidly disappears.

What can we do?

We can rise as a human family and force decision makers to consider life the greatest priority. Let us take our inspiration from dolphins, who defend themselves and their offspring through an instinct to flock together in the face of danger . . . and to attack power with wisdom.

Now we take our time . . . so nonchalant,
And spend our nights so bon-vivant.
We dress our days in silken robes,
The money comes, the money goes . . .
We light our lamps for atmosphere,
And hang our hopes on chandeliers.
We're going wrong, we're gaining weight,
We're sleeping long and far too late.
And so it's time to change our ways . . .
But I've loved these days.
Now as we indulge in things refined,
We hide our hearts from harder times.
A string of pearls, a foreign car . . .
Oh, we can only go so far . . . on caviar
and Cabernet.
We drown our doubts in dry champagne,
And soothe our souls with fine "cocaine."
I don't know why I even care . . .
We get so high and get nowhere.
We'll have to change our jaded ways . . .
But I've loved these days.
So, before we end (and then begin) —
We'll drink a toast to how it's been . . .
A few more hours to be complete,
A few more nights on satin sheets,
A few more times that I can say . . .
I've loved these days.

Willi says he is bummed out that it's all over because he won't have anything to do tomorrow. Denise realizes that this book may be the last thing that she can give her fellow Foresters. This book, as an experience, has been very rewarding, if not a real trial of one's patience, if not their sanity.

But in the end, it has been worthwhile. When so few people on this campus ever get to tell the community how important they are to them, it is nice to have an outlet for such feelings. It is too bad that our generation is marred, by a lack of true emotion. It is hard to tell just one person how much they mean to you, even when you have known them for four years. Maybe that is the purpose of a yearbook or the reason for working on one.

So here it is, the 1981 Forester. You may not look at this for a year, or maybe you won't look at it for fifty years; but whenever you look at it may you remember the time that you spent at Lake Forest College, and the people who cared. After all, without people, life wouldn't be worth living.

To you, from us, we give you the LFC yearbook, and may you enjoy it forever.

Rick:

Your graduation magnifies our pride in you and draws us again into the warm circle of your accomplishment. But for all too brief a moment.

Much of life is change. Ready or not, here it comes again.

Your years here have been to "make ready" for more and greater changes and accomplishment.

Not knowing precisely what you want to do is not a crime.

Absolute certainty is more fearful, I think, than a good, solid feeling of uncertainty. It's a challenge to explore, to expand and to keep growing.

You have the tools to build whatever you want. Build for quality. Your ideas will change, your view of the project will change. You'll throw away some and sharpen other tools. And may not ever be completely satisfied with what you've built.

Good. Keep building.

Very simply, my son, your mother and I love you. And that's a constant.

Congratulations, Lauren!

We are very proud
